M: <sup>②</sup> Why not have John fix it? He is an expert at fixing things.

3. W: I'm flying to Seattle tomorrow, but I've never been on an airplane. I'm scared.

M: You could always take a train or drive. Seattle isn't that far.

W: <sup>③</sup> I already bought a plane ticket, so I have to fly.

4. M: Why are you late for class?

W: Oh, I locked the keys in my room. <sup>④</sup> I had to wait until my roommate got back so that I could get my textbooks.

5. W: I'm busy year in, year out, but now I've done nothing.

M: You've done a lot, my darling!

W: <sup>⑤</sup> I may have done a lot, but none is to my satisfaction.

M: You're too strict with yourself.

M: How did the evening go?

W: It went well. She had some orange juice at 6:00. <sup>⑥</sup> I made her noodles with cheese for dinner at 6:30. After dinner, I gave her a bath and then read to her in bed. She really loved that book The Little Engine that Could! She ended up going to bed around 7:30 and hasn't woken up since.

M: <sup>⑦</sup> We really appreciate you coming to take care of my daughter. This is the $ 80 for the fee. Would you like me to walk you out?

W: No. I'll be fine. I'll see you at the same time next week.

M: OK. See you.

W: <sup>⑧</sup> Hey, Jonson, look at this beach!

M: Say, that's a nice-looking beach. Where is it?

W: <sup>⑨</sup> It's in Thailand. I'd like to go there.

M: Me, too. Bangkok is the country's capital, right? What can you see there?

W: <sup>⑩</sup> Lots of things. But no visit to Bangkok is complete without seeing the Grand Palace. Because the architecture is fantastic!

M: What else can you do in Bangkok?

W: I can spend time in Bangkok's floating markets.

M: Floating markets? Do people sell things on small boats?

W: <sup>⑪</sup> Yes, they do. You can buy a fresh coconut and drink its juice. Or you can get some food cooked right on a boat. And they are only small boats so there are not many travelers on them, which are not noisy like common markets.

M: That sounds great! Thai food is delicious!

W: <sup>⑫</sup> What do you think about this idea going for a picnic?

M: Well, I'm not sure. I think it's a bit boring. I think barbecue on the beach would be more fun.

W: Yes, I agree, <sup>⑬</sup> but it's quite a lot of work. Someone has to stand here and cook all night. I think we should go to a restaurant instead.

M: That's true, but it's quite expensive to go to a restaurant.

W: Well, <sup>⑭</sup> what about having a DVD party at someone's house? We could order a pizza or just some hamburgers. But we could throw all the rubbish away afterwards.

M: I suppose so. I think a fancy dress party is a good idea. We could have a competition and decide who is wearing the best clothes. <sup>⑮</sup> And for food, everyone could bring a different dish. That way we can share the work.

W: Yes, you are right. I think that's the best idea too.

W: Maybe in March, next month. <sup>⑯</sup> We have three days off for our holiday. We could take off another two days and go for a week.

M: <sup>⑭</sup> No. If I take all my holiday in March, I won't be able to take a holiday in the summer. Where would you like to go?

W: Well, <sup>⑮</sup> there aren't any flights to Greece until May, unfortunately. I'd like to go there. But we can fly to Spain quite cheaply.

M: That would be nice. Where would we stay? In a hotel?

W: <sup>⑰</sup> I'll show you on the computer. <sup>⑯</sup> There's this cottage. It's inside an old palace in this beautiful historic village in the mountains.

M: It's quite expensive though. And it has 3 bedrooms. We don't need that many.

W: Okay, <sup>⑰</sup> what about this one? It's up in the hills. Very quiet and peaceful.

M: That looks nice.

W: Or there's this one. It's a town house. It's big and it looks lovely inside.

M: <sup>⑰</sup> I think I prefer that one in the hills.

W: Me too. If it is, we'll book the flights right away online.

M: Hello, everyone. First let me introduce myself. My name is John Barker, and I work at an institution. As most of you know, <sup>⑮</sup> I'm here to talk about students' summer jobs. In many parts of the world, university students work in the summer. They need the money, and they can get some working experience. Traditionally, they get jobs as servers, cashiers, and lifeguards at swimming pools.

These days, however, more and more students are working at dotcoms. <sup>⑮</sup> Dotcoms are Internet-based companies which offer goods and services online. Today's young people already know a lot about computers, and they can quickly learn more. The pay is usually much better than that at the traditional summer jobs.

There are other advantages besides the pay. Students see dotcom jobs as a good start on their future. In addition to providing good experience, the work is also enjoyable for most. <sup>⑰</sup> On top of this, their co-workers treat them with respect.

Dotcoms are new and need new ways of thinking. <sup>⑰</sup> Imagination is more important than formal qualifications. So some university students even start their own dotcoms.

W: I still have a cold. <sup>①</sup> It's been over a week. I started feeling this way last Monday.

2. W: Good morning, Doctor Smith. My name is Catherine. <sup>②</sup> I work at the local newspaper. May I ask you a few questions?

M: Certainly.

3. W: What great muscles, Tom! I envy your strong arms and legs. Have you been working out?

M: Yeah, I do sports every day. My mom asked me to do that. <sup>③</sup> She said I was weak, and there was something wrong with my bones before.

4. W: <sup>④</sup> Wow, I really love this campus. All the big trees, the green lawns, and the old buildings with tall columns. It's really beautiful.

M: It sure is. The architecture of these buildings is in the Greek style. It was popular in the 18th century here.

5. W: Teenagers in the UK are allowed to do some paid work as well as going to school.

M: Well, <sup>⑤</sup> I think earning money is a very good idea. The maturity that comes after work experience is very noted. They feel much more responsible, and they learn about money management, all the life skills that in fact schools are expecting young people to achieve.

W: Mmm, <sup>⑦</sup> to be honest, I'm sick and tired of discos. And students can go to a disco any time, can't they? We're all bored to death with school discos. We've had loads and loads of them.

M: In that case, let's have something a little different. How about a folk group for a change?

W: That's not a bad idea, Richard. Next...

W: Chris, I would like to know, what kind of food you eat in Belgium.

M: We have our fish, our meat, our wines, our fruit...

W: I mean what is popular about Belgian food?

M: Well, it's a bit different in Belgium compared to here in New York, I think. We really enjoy the tables. We don't go out for dinner that often but when we go out, we stay at a table for three or four hours. <sup>⑫</sup> It starts with appetizers, then it may be a soup, then it's the main dish, then it's still an ice-cream or something.

W: It takes so much time to have dinner in your country!

M: Yeah. We really enjoy eating and it goes slow. Last winter, a friend from Portugal went to Belgium with me. For Christmas dinner, we met at 5:30 and then we started with some drinks. <sup>⑬</sup> I think we ate from 6 o'clock in the afternoon till 12 o'clock that night.

W: Wow! You must be fat there if you eat that much.

M: In fact, we don't. <sup>⑭</sup> We don't do it that often, but if we do, then of course the next day or the next few days you see people just don't eat much.

M: <sup>⑭</sup> Well, would it be convenient for you to wait until next month?

W: Hm. . . <sup>⑮ ⑯</sup> I guess I can put it off until next month, but I've got to talk about it with my husband.

M: <sup>⑰</sup> My mother was telling me about how she and her family got their first television when she was a teenager. <sup>⑱</sup> Of course it was black and white. She said she only watched it at night. She didn't remember ever watching it in the morning or afternoon. <sup>⑲</sup> When I was young we had only about 3 or 4 different channels. I think they were channel 3, 4, 6 and 9. My brothers and sisters and I would sometimes fight about which channel to watch. <sup>⑳ ㉑</sup> But we usually enjoyed the same shows. Nowadays we can get hundreds of channels on TV. I can't believe it! There are channels with only old movies, channels with only cooking, and channels with only fishing. It's amazing! There is a channel for everything. <sup>㉒</sup> I wonder how many times my brothers and sisters and I would fight if we had hundreds of channels when I was a child. Of course we had only one television set. These days, I notice families with 2 or 3 or more television sets in their homes. I guess it stops people from arguing over which channel to choose.

M: What do you mean?

W: Well, you see there are almost one hundred pieces of chocolate in one box, with each piece costing 25 cents. <sup>⑦</sup> Just wait until you see the meat section...

M: What? do they sell whole cows or something?

W: Let's just put it this way: if you bought the smallest amount of pork there, you'd probably need to invite every single person from our dormitory over for dinner to finish it.

M: Well, I'm glad the band is important to you, but it can't be more important than study. After all, when you graduate from high school, you are hoping to go to college, not become a professional musician.

W: <sup>⑭</sup> I guess a small apartment will be cheaper...

M: Provided it's not during July, yes... How long would you like to stay?

W: <sup>⑮</sup> About a fortnight, but it might be difficult to change dates. You know, we are three and have different available time...

M: I see... how many do you say are there?

W: There'll be three of us... all girls, so we need a safe place near the beach. But we cannot spend more than £100 a day...

M: For that price you won't have many choices, I'm afraid, but let me find out... <sup>⑯</sup> If you could arrange to make it in late June... I might have a bedsitter for £75... It could accommodate 3 single beds, and it's 5 minutes' walk from the main beach...

W: One of the most famous travelers in history was Marco Polo. At the age of 17, he left Italy with his father and uncle. It took them over 3 years to cross the mountains and deserts of Asia. <sup>⑱</sup> In the year 1275, they reached China. They stayed in China for almost 20 years, as guests of the emperor. The emperor sent them on many trips around his empire. <sup>⑲</sup> They found China far more advanced than Italy or any other country in Europe. After he returned to Italy, Marco Polo told many of his stories to a friend. His book, Description of the World, became the most popular book in Europe. People found it difficult to believe his stories of people, animals, places, and things. These are a few of his descriptions: In one area of China, there were black stones. People dug them out of the mountains. They lit the black stones and they burned very slowly, giving off heat. ⑭ The people used these stones to cook and to heat their homes. Most people believed Marco Polo's stories. But others told him that they did not believe his descriptions. He answered that he did not tell half of what he saw.
